

Here's what the Irish Times had to say on 03/11/09:

"CORK HAS been listed alongside cities in the US, Canada and Italy in a new Lonely Planet travel guide for the top places to visit in 2010.

The Best in Travel 2010 published this week is the travel company's fifth in its annual collection of the best places to go and best things to do in the year ahead.

Cork was listed as a "top city" alongside Abu Dhabi, Charleston (South Carolina, USA), Cuenca (Ecuador), Istanbul, Kyoto, Lecce in Italy, Sarajevo, Singapore and Vancouver. The guide said Cork was now "at the top of its game: sophisticated, vibrant and diverse".
